

nature wonder weekend - forage and feast

---

SEPTEMBER 21ST-23RD AT NORTH BEND STATE PARK

GET BACK TO THE BASICS AT NORTH BEND STATE PARK IN CAIRO, WEST VIRGINIA - AN AGE-OLD FORAGER'S PARADISE WHERE YOU'LL DISCOVER A RICHNESS IN NATURE'S SIMPLICITY. WITH AN ABUNDANCE OF EDIBLE WILD FOODS AND EXPERIENCED FORAGERS, PREPARE TO BE IMMersed IN A WEEKEND OF FORAGING AT ITS BEST.

The National Wild Foods Association welcomes you to the 51st Annual Nature Wonder Weekend
September 21-23, 2018
at North Bend State Park Cairo, West Virginia

featured leaders, teachers and authors

---

Keynote speaker Doug Elliott, naturalist, herbalist, storyteller, and author from Union Mills, North Carolina and guest speakers Mike Krebill, wild foods author and teacher from Keokuk, Iowa, and Sam England, chief of West Virginia Parks and Recreation section will help expand your foraging knowledge and skill with informative presentations and question and answer talks.

More information about Doug Elliott can be found at dougelliott.com

leader led hikes and workshops

---

Choose from several hikes led by knowledgeable wild food experts throughout the weekend, including our first ever bike-hike. Workshop choices ranging from wild edible identification, preparation, and preservation of your finds will help you go from foraging to feast year round. You'll be able to share your wild food cooking skills during the wild food contest and social hour.

wild food contests and social hour

---

Share your wild food culinary skills during the Friday evening wild food and wild cake contests and the Saturday social hour and wild drink contest.

meals and lodging

Although wild foods are featured throughout the weekend, five traditional Appalachian style buffet meals will be available in the North Bend lodge restaurant. Lodging options include lodge rooms, deluxe vacation cabins completely equipped for housekeeping with a full kitchen and bath, or your choice of campground sites ranging from primitive to full hookup.
