

GET INVOLVED

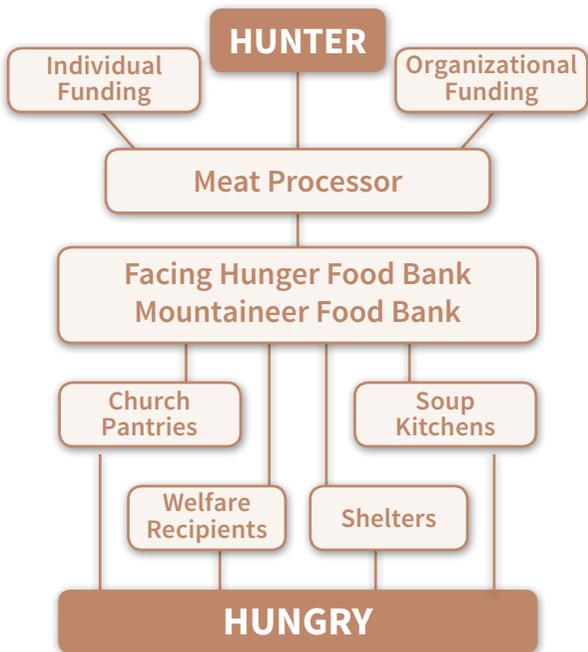

There are many people involved with the Hunters Helping the Hungry (HHH) Program, but participation by hunters and West Virginia meat processors is the key element to its success.

Participation

From the first day of any deer season until December 31, hunters who legally harvest a deer and wish to donate the meat to HHH can deliver the deer to the nearest participating meat processor. Acceptance of the deer is subject to the individual meat processor's scheduling.

The meat processor will skin the deer; debone and grind the meat (no other cuts); freeze it in two-pound packages; and hold it for pick-up by the Mountaineer Food Bank in Gassaway, West Virginia, or the Facing Hunger Food Bank.

These food banks are the only certified West Virginia members of Feeding America, a national network committed to feeding the hungry. Both are non-profit organizations, inspected and approved by the West Virginia Department of Agriculture. They distribute the ground venison to the needy through their network of qualified charitable agencies.

Donations

Hunters Helping the Hungry (HHH) provides thousands of pounds of venison to hungry West Virginians each year. Although the West Virginia Division of Natural Resources, Wildlife Resources Section, coordinates and publicizes HHH to the hunting public, under state law, it has no authority to spend license fee income on food processing and distribution costs.

Meat processing costs $1.45 per pound, with the average deer providing 35½ lbs. of ground venison (approximately 142 meals). Food banks are paid only for pickup and distribution costs.

The program is funded solely by the generous donations of caring individuals, businesses and organizations, including the West Virginia Council of Churches, West Virginia Trophy Hunter Association, National Rifle Association, Governor's One Shot, Inc., West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources, and the Greater Kanawha Valley Foundation. Their generosity enables the program to fulfill its mission:

"...provide balanced, healthy meals for the less fortunate of West Virginia..."

The Wildlife Resources Section makes an urgent appeal to all West Virginians who are able to help. Donations are tax-deductible.

Share Your Harvest

SUNDAY

November 6, 2016*

In conjunction with the West Virginia Council of Churches, the West Virginia Division of Natural Resources, Wildlife Resources Section has designated Sunday, November 6, 2016, as Share the Harvest Sunday. Congregations throughout the state are encouraged to collect donations to keep HHH alive and growing. Any donation, $1, $5 or whatever parishioners can afford, is greatly appreciated and goes to provide high-quality meat to those in need.

All donations go to help Mountaineer Food Bank of Gassaway, W.Va., and the Facing Hunger Food Bank pay to process hunter-donated deer and associated distribution costs. The processed ground venison is distributed to charitable agencies throughout the state to feed West Virginians in need.

Hunters are asked to encourage their churches to participate in this worthwhile endeavor to help the HHH program fulfill its mission to provide balanced, healthy meals for the less fortunate of West Virginia.

Since its inception in 1992, HHH has provided venison for more than 1.2 million meals to needy West Virginians.
