Get your DNR ID#

Non-licensed hunters: If you are not required to buy a license (e.g., landowner, underage, etc.), you may log onto wvhunt.com or visit a license agent to obtain your DNR ID number.

License buyers: If you buy your base license each year, your DNR ID number will be printed on the upper left hand corner of the license.

Go hunt

Check your game 1 of 3 ways

Hunters and trappers, you may check game by one of the following three methods:

1. Going online to wvhunt.com.
2. By calling 1-844-982-4325 (1-844-WVCheck). You must be registered in the system and know your unique DNR ID number to use the telephone check option. To obtain your DNR ID number, please see the information below.
3. Stopping at a hunting and fishing license agent. For a current list of license agents, visit www.wvdnr.gov. Note: you are not required to bring the animal to the license agent.

Upon finishing the electronic game check process, you will be given a 13-digit game check confirmation number that will serve as verification that you have completed the game checking process.

This unique number must be written down on a sheet of paper with your name and address, or on your completed field tag, and attached to the animal. This number shall be affixed to the animal or parts thereof and remain affixed until it is dressed for consumption or processed into commercial fur. It will let the Natural Resources Police Officers know that the animal has been officially checked.

You may view your game checking history at wvhunt.com.

The new electronic licensing system has been in effect since January 1, 2015. Most hunters have adapted pretty well to the system. The big change for hunters, and for trappers of beaver, bobcat, fisher and river otter, is the ability to check in game by phone or computer.

Those who still like to talk directly to someone about their hunting experiences will be able to stop by one of the approximately 170 official license agents to check in their game. However, they won't have to bring the animal in with them for checking purposes. Hunters and trappers will still have to follow the time and transportation restrictions as listed in the regulations.
